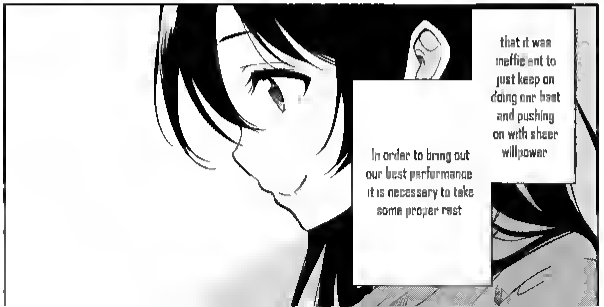
As the members of μ's we have been working hard during practice,
so today is a valuable day off in the middle of summer vacation
Summer vacation has been hot every day

Seeing our current situation Eli and Nico decided
Our fatigue had been building up in the summer so everyone has been feeling a little tired



that it was inefficient to just keep on doing one beat and pushing on with sheer willpower
In order to bring out our best performance it is necessary to take some proper rest

Homework
Sweeping
Cleaning
Finally- It's lunch time
Phew-
The thing about vacations are... Now that I look at it like this, I don't know what to do with all this time.

Grandmother
Umm so you were here at home today?
Yes since we don't have any club activities today
I was proceeding with my usual homework and cleaning that I've been neglecting to do ずー

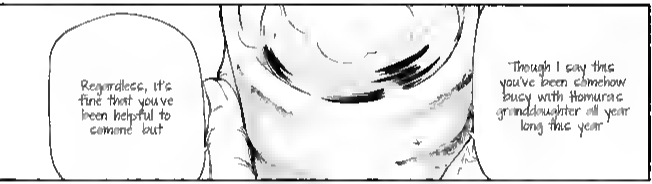
So it's only grandmother and I?
Despite it being called summer vacation it seems the only ones who are taking a break is this old lady and Umi who's a student



Though I say this you've been somehow busy with Homura's granddaughter all year long this year
Regardless, it's fine that you've been helpful to someone but gotten fired?

have you finally カッ

One of our members who's also the student council president told us to take a proper rest today

Really
I-it's true!

That's why I'm saying really?

N-not at all, I'm doing fine

Perhaps a shoulder massage sometime-

How about it?
I'll be able to help out grandmother for the first time in a while
And so I plan to be completely free in the afternoon

As usual you're not popular are you Umi?
It's not like that!
Probably
Is your lifeline for the next million years of summer vacations going to be only this old lady?
Listen, for a young person to not have a partner to kill time with はぁ
ギク
Well that's fine
Even if you're not popular your serious personality is one of your good points
ニコニコ
If you truly want to be useful to this old lady so much from depths of your heart, コト
I'll respect it deeply and take advantage of it.

After you finish eating lunch
Please go to Homura's and buy some manju
It's no good if it's not freshly made
Get a freshly made one from Homura's son
Wait for it, no matter how long the wait may take tell them "It's fine."

I'm here to buy some manjuu from the store but no one was there-
Ahh. Sorry, sorry! Mom and dad might've been stalled by the neighborhood association

Um
Ah, it's Umi-chan!!

What are you doing here Honoka?
We're supposed to rest today right? So I'm taking a break at my house!
I was eating youkan while watching the garden ♡

There's still plenty left♪
Give me a minute

I'm only here to buy something, so it's not like...

...It's not like I'm in a hurry

Sitting on the counter it seemed like there was nothing to do. Looking at Honoka's state... I somehow felt let down and I certainly felt like eating some water youkan
Isn't this year's water youkan delicious?
Eating this really gives you the "feeling-that summer has arrived♪"

ほっ

Back then, I often came here to play during the summer
and ate water youkan
Yoshi~♪
By the way...
You were supposed to come here shopping but we ended up playing together a lot instead
So you ended up going home in the evening
Umi-chan would always say
Further will get mad and get teary eyed while trying to go back but
Just a little longer it'll be okay if it's just for a little longer Honoka would say holding you back... I feel sorry about that
Sorry Umi-chan♪
It's fine
Looking back on it, it always ended up like this
Even when I came home late from playing at Honoka's place, grandmother wouldn't ever get angry

That slow working son of Homura,
for him to take an entire afternoon to create a single manju, there's no hope for the future.
It must've been terrible for Umi to have to wait so long.
All of the jabs go straight to Honoka's dad...

Umi-chan's grandma is really interesting!
Yes.
I feel like I understand my grandmother's feelings a little more now.
By using shopping as an excuse
I think she was trying to let me go play at Honoka's house

But you know it ended up turning out the same way today
I was awkward, overly serious, and always had my time taken up by practice.
I didn't have much other friends-
Ah...
Umi-chan is held up here like this with the winter yukata.
But hey.
Look.
Could it be that today grandmother also..?

Back in those days, we sat on this veranda
swinging our feet,
and now Look!

Our feet reaches the ground
We've really grown haven't we?
くすくす
But what we've been doing hasn't changed much huh!
Indeed, we're still the daughters of our households and grandmother's girls.
